

Kindly Answer all the below questions

NAME:
DEPARTMENT:

1. Education & Certifications

- What degree(s) do you hold, and from which institution(s)?

- Which certifications have you earned?

- Have you taken any specialized courses? Please provide details.

- Have you pursued any continuing education or online courses? If so, which ones?

--

2. Technical Skills & Training

- What programming languages are you proficient in (e.g., Python, Java, C#), and what is your expertise level in each of those languages. (Python: Expert, Java: medior etc etc)

- What software have you used in your career, and what is your level in each of the softwares? (Microsoft word: expert, excel: medior, Jira:junior, Trello, Azure etc etc)

3. Practical Experience & Projects

- Can you describe some of the most challenging IT projects you've worked on? What was your role, and what technologies/stacks did you use?

- Have you ever managed a project or team? If yes, what was the scope, and what challenges did you face?

--

- Can you give an example of a problem you solved creatively during a project? What was the outcome?

- What experience do you have in troubleshooting and problem-solving in a real-world environment?

4. Soft Skills & Problem-Solving

- How do you approach learning new technologies or tools that you're not familiar with?

- How do you manage time and prioritize tasks when handling multiple development projects simultaneously?

5. Specialized Areas of Interest

- Which area of development do you feel most passionate about?

- Are there any specific technologies or fields within development that you would like to gain more experience in?

- What type of task or project do you feel most confident in handling?

- Are there areas where you think you can add the most value to the company?

6. Personal Development Goals

- What are your short-term and long-term career goals in the development industry?

- Are there any certifications or advanced courses that you're planning to pursue in the near future?

- In which areas do you feel you need further development or training to excel at your job?

7. Adaptability and Continuous Learning

- How do you stay updated on the latest trends and advancements in the development field?

- Can you share an instance where you had to learn a new technology or skill quickly to meet a project deadline? How did you manage it?